Bank Account Saved Boys.

Norfolk Landmark.
The possession of bank accounts operated to save Willie Joyntes and Earl Padden, a couple of news boys, from being fined in the police court yesterday morning. They had been arrested on warrants sworn out by Joe Stein, another newsie, on the charges of assault. The case proved a puzzling one, and Judge Simmons said he would have to assess a fine against each of the young prisoners. At this point an officer called attention to the fact that the boys had bank accounts and were saving what they earned at selling papers. After satisfying himself that this was so, Judge Simmons reconsidered his determination to fine the boys, and discharged them.

Moral: Own Your Own Newspaper.

Selected.
The Kansas City Journal says: "A man who was too economical to subscribe for his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $10 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father who ran to his assistance, and failing to note a barbed-wire fence, ran into it, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $5.00 pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran, upset a 1-gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In her hurry she dropped a $25 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor, ruining a $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts."

Seventeenth Century Customs.

Selected.
In the seventeenth century Englishmen thought it injurious to sleep in rooms facing the sun, so most of the rooms faced north and east, opening off a passage or else out of each other. At the head of the stairs slept the master and his wife, and all the rooms tenanted by the rest of the household were accessible only through that. The daughters of the house and maidservants lay in rooms on one side, say the right, with the maids in those most distant; those of the men lay on the left, the sons of the house nearest the chamber of the master and the serving men farthest away.

Splashin' in the Branch.

Atlanta Constitution.
Splashin' in the branch there—lann'd face, an' old straw hat—
Suspenders made o' cotton, an' 'im wearin' one, at that!
Takes you back to old times—to the country ranch,
When, just like that feller, you was splashin' in the branch!

What is all yer money—dollars piled so high?
The joy you've left behind you is what money cannot buy!
A bird's song in the blossoms—the treads of delight—
That barefoot feller, splashin' in the water cool an' bright!

Oh, Time—it keeps adylin' on swift an' careless wings.
An' no more you'll find youth's summer where the honeyuckle swings
An' the bright, barefooted fellers—there, at the country ranch,
Meet the blossoms o' the mornin', an' go splashin' in the branch!

LIVER TROUBLES

"I used Theford's Black-Draught a cool medicine for liver disease. It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAVALIER MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.
If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.
Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.
"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to excel it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Starblehead, Ill.
